

THE FULHAM BOYS SCHOOL

A Church of England School

The Fulham Boys School
532 Fulham Road
London SW6 5BD

The Fulham Boys School is looking to appoint an outstanding Head of Music who will lead an ambitious Music programme to stretch and challenge our most able musicians while encouraging musical enjoyment for all. We are looking for a strong performer, in the classroom and on the stage, a sense of imagination and a commitment to the role, who has a clear ambition and enthusiasm for Music, and will be fully involved in the life of the school.

The successful applicant also needs to have a love of Music of many different forms, a desire to encourage our boys to perform Music and to respond to it with enjoyment and understanding and motivation to work with pupils and young people. S/he will be recognised as an outstanding musician and teacher: dynamic and imaginative. S/he will lead by example to motivate and work with others.

Essential skills include the direction, conducting and development of choirs and orchestras/bands and experience accompanying and working from the keyboard (good keyboard skills are a minimum requirement). Excellent communication skills are essential, as is the ability to get on with a wide range of people and to support and encourage musicians of all abilities. Well-developed organisational and IT skills are expected, and an understanding that the work of the Head of Music at FBS is not limited to the hours of the school day.

The successful candidate will have the ability to stand and lead in front of large audiences and will have a passion for our boys to thrive academically as well as flourish outside of the classroom.

The school is ambitious, believes strongly in its vision and ethos and is determined to influence the educational landscape nationally and globally. It is a growing Trust which means that there will be exciting career progression opportunities for staff.
